

*Train up a child in
the way he should go;
even when he is old,
he will not depart
from it.*

—Proverbs 22:6 (ESV)

39th ANNUAL GARAGE SALE

The garage sale was a success thanks to the following ...

- The 'Dream Team' which was made up of the many people who donated items, helped to set up, cashiered, bought items and helped to clean up.
- The PCC staff & kids who gave up their use of Fellowship Hall for the sale.
- $839.00 earned for church mission projects.
- Two van loads of 'good stuff' passed on to the Kentucky Mountain Mission.
- One trunk load donated to the London Public Library's clothing drive for professional interview-ready clothing.
- All the community good will we generated through our BIG sale at LITTLE prices.
- The abundance of mainly clothes that were bought to help Ukrainian families in the U.S. and in the Ukraine.
- The opportunities we had during the sale to tell people about our church family, the PCC, and to pray with those who reached out to us.
- Last, but not least, to God for giving us the guidance, energy, and good weather for the sale.

Thank you to all for a sale that was fun and done! ~ Joyce Lloyd
